

CHRISTMAS FOR COWBOYS PARADE

Santa Claus waves to the crowd from his perch on a Rawlins Fire Department truck during the Christmas for Cowboys parade through downtown Saturday evening. The Wyoming Department of Transportation's entry placed first, Taylor Automotive was second and Iron J Towing was awarded third place.
